The Ann Arbor Civic Chorus is a program offered through Ann Arbor Public Schools Community Education & Recreation (Rec & Ed) department and is open to all. The chorus was started in 1983 and performs two to three free concerts per year and also offers performances in the community at senior centers, nursing homes and for community events. Singers range in age from their 20s to their 80s! No audition is required to join and you do not need to live in Ann Arbor to participate.
