The Ann Arbor Civic Chorus is a program offered through Ann Arbor Public Schools Community Education & Recreation (Rec & Ed) department and is open to all. The chorus was started in 1983 and performs two to three free concerts per year and also offers performances in the community at senior centers, nursing homes and for community events. Singers range in age from their 20s to their 80s! No audition is required to join and you do not need to live in Ann Arbor to participate.

Program

Sing We and Chant It Thomas Morley (1557-1602)

Ubi Caritas René Clausen (b. 1953)

Where charity and love are, God is there.
The Christ's love has gathered us into one.

Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him.
Let us fear and let us love the living God,
And let us love each other with a sincere heart.

Where charity and love are, God is there.
Likewise, therefore, let us come together as one.
Beware, lest we be divided in mind.

Let evil impulses stop, let controversy cease,
And may Christ be in our midst.

Where charity and love are, God is there.

And may we also see with the saints,
Gloriously Thy face, O Christ.
The joy that is immense and good,
Unto the ages through infinite ages. Amen.

Non Nobis, Domine Rosephanye Powell (b.1962)

Not to us, O Lord, not to us,
But to Your name be the glory.

Till There Was You (from The Music Man) Meredith Willson (1902-1984),
arr. Mac Huff

Lullaby of Birdland George Shearing (1919-2011),

Amor de Mi Alma Z. Randall Stroope (b.1953),
Garcilaso de la Vega (1503-1536), poet

I was born to love only you;
My soul has formed you to its measure;
I want you as a garment for my soul.

Your very image is written on my soul;
Such indescribable intimacy
I hide even from you.

All that I have, I owe to you;
For you I was born, for you I live,
For you I must die, and for you
I give my last breath.

Casita de Campo Enriquillo Sánchez (1947-2004),
arr. Rafaelito Martínez & Juan-Tony Guzmán

Little country house, so white, so beautiful, I yearn to dream.
There by the door, always in love, she awaited me.
And by the ravine, bathed by the full moon,
Under the palm trees of a star-filled sky, she gave me her love.
You, that sheltered, little country house, our great love,
And heard the moan and saw the offering of her innocent body.
Now I am so lonesome that crying smothers me,
Little country house, when together with her I would dream.

Stand in That River Moira Smiley (b.1976)

Mary Durfee, Edmund Durfee, Shobita Parthasarathy, Scott Merwin, soloists
Edward Diehl, mandolin; Evan Lebow-Wolf, fiddle
